NOTICE

In the public interest, it is to inform that Hon'ble the Chief Justice of India and Patron-in-Chief, NALSA, and Hon'ble Executive Chairman, NALSA had launched an online Mobile App on 08.08.2021 to enhance access of citizens availing free legal services. The said Mobile App will enable citizens to submit legal aid applications and also able to keep track of their legal aid applications/ legal aided cases 24x7 from android smart phones. The mobile app can also be used to file applications for victim compensation and Mediation.

The Android Mobile Application has successfully been uploaded on the Google Play Store and is available for downloading and installation. All officials including staff, panel lawyers, mediators, PLVs and other individuals working to provide citizen centric services are requested to download the app and persuade others to download the said app from Google Play Store. The direct link for downloading the said app is given below:

<https://play.google.com/store/apps/details?id=com.nalsa.lsmsapp>

The salient features of this application are:

1. Any citizen may apply for seeking legal assistance, legal advice and for redressal of other grievances through Mobile App.
2. Any citizen may track his application submitted for legal aid & advice and other grievances.
3. Reminder can be sent and clarifications can be sought through Mobile App.
4. Any victim of crime or applicant can apply for victim compensation through the Mobile App.
5. Application for pre-institution mediation in commercial matters or application for mediation may be filed through this Mobile App.
